

A Taste of Kamalaya

Pre-Summit dates: October 10-14, 2019

Post-Summit dates: October 17-21, 2019

Hosted by Kamalaya Koh Samui

Kamalaya Koh Samui

We invite you to join us at Kamalaya, a multi-award-winning Wellness Sanctuary and Holistic Spa set in an idyllic location on the tropical island of Koh Samui, Thailand.

Founded by John and Karina Stewart in 2005, Kamalaya offers a unique holistic wellness experience that integrates healing therapies from East and West, a breathtakingly beautiful natural environment, inspired healthy cuisine, holistic fitness practices and a wide range of results-driven wellness programs and small group retreats.

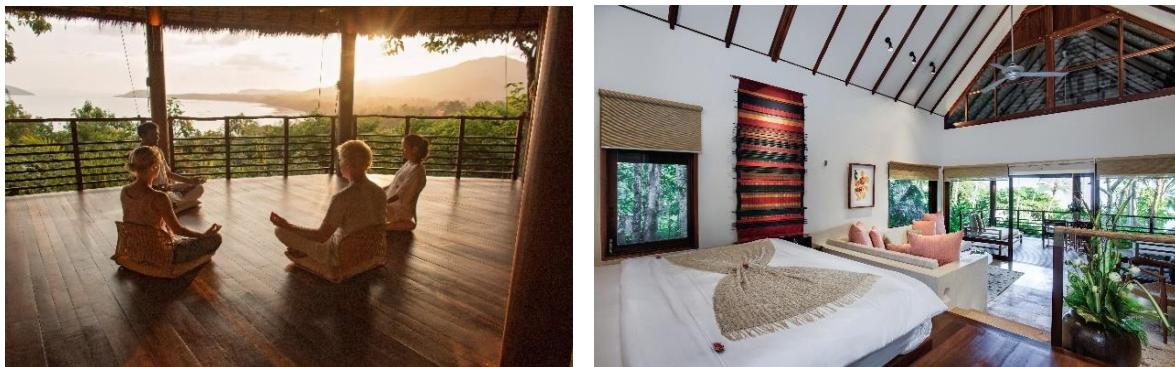

GWS delegates will experience a bespoke wellness program specially created for this year's Summit. The "Taste of Kamalaya" program offers a brief immersion into Kamalaya's expansive wellness offering and incorporates a synergy of treatments, therapies and modalities to benefit the mind, body and spirit.

After completing the program, guests will enjoy a greater sense of physical wellbeing and a heightened level of connection between the mind and body. In addition, they will rediscover the vital joy of reconnecting with their inner-self and the healing power of nature.

Award-Winning, Inspired Healthy Cuisine

Kamalaya's delicious and healthy cuisine is based on principles derived from the ancient healing traditions of Traditional Chinese Medicine and Ayurveda from India, combined with current medical and nutritional research.

Kamalaya considers "food as medicine" and that food is most healing when it remains closest to its original state. With this in mind, Kamalaya's culinary team works with fresh, seasonal and organic produce, avoiding processed foods, additives and preservatives altogether. Kamalaya uses gentle cooking methods to preserve the wealth of vitamins, minerals and other nutrients that provide pure sources of natural medicine, vital for optimal health.
